

VIRTUAL Mini-MOO Workshop & Concert with Guitarist, SCOTT AINSLIE Saturday, September 24, 2022

Workshop 1:00-3:00 PM CDT / Concert/Demo 4:00-5:00 CDT

Scott Ainslie has been a musician all his life. He came of age during the Civil Rights era and cultivated a powerful affinity for cross-cultural exchange. He has studied with elder musicians on both sides of the color line – in the Old-Time Southern Appalachian fiddle and banjo traditions, as well as Black Gospel and Blues. He plays this music with affection, authority, and power.

On stage, in educational teaching concerts, workshops, and school residencies, Ainslie explores the African and European roots of American music and culture. His easy, conversational way with audiences and cross-disciplinary approach to the music consistently garners rave reviews from presenters, audiences, students, and teachers, alike. He is a masterful and thoughtful historian, storyteller, and musician.

WORKSHOP WEBINAR - Song Accompaniment Lab - Quick Arrangement Improvements

Saturday, Sept 24th, 2022, 1:00-3:00 PM CDT

Do you have a guitar accompaniment that you think could sound better? Feel stuck in what you know? Bring a song you're in the middle of working on (or have played forever) and we'll listen to your arrangement and dress it up - expanding your technique, knowledge, and musical thinking process.

You will learn new ways to think about a song, & specific techniques for different keys in your repertoire.

To view the recorded workshop: Use the workshop link you received from Zoom

For more on Scott Ainslie visit his website: <https://cattailmusic.com>

To donate to Scott's "Tip Jar"

Click for Scott's Tip Jar